

Fashion fails!

1 Collaboration

Get into groups of five.

Think of 5 fashion “fails”. For example, You should never wear orange and pink together.

Write down your five fashion fails.

2 Creativity

Choose a way of displaying your fashion fails. You can:

- Draw the fails on a poster.
- Use magazine cutouts and mix and match them to decorate a poster displaying the fails.
- Find or bring in clothes and personalize the five fails by dressing up.

Present your fails. You can do this by:

- Displaying your poster and explaining the pictures.
- Having a fashion show and, while each “model” walks down the catwalk, explain the fail.

3 Communication

Get back into your group.

Talk to each other about how you can correct your fails. For example, if you said orange and pink don't go together, say how to rectify this fail.

4 Critical thinking

Get into new groups. Discuss the following questions:

- 1 Should people dress to please others or themselves?
- 2 Do you care about fashion “rules”? Why or why not?
- 3 What do you think is a fashionable style?

5 Evaluation

- 1 Which was the most attractive presentation? Why?

---

- 2 What is your opinion on fashion?
